

Esmee Ingham

Esmee Ingham is a 16 year old from West Vancouver, BC, who's passion was sparked by her aunt at a very young age. Esmee started out riding western and took jumping lessons at Wildwood Paddocks at the age of 5. After a few years she moved to North Shore Equestrian Center and then Burnaby Equestrian center, riding school ponies as well as, attending summer camps at Aspengrove.

Ingham's first introduction to Dressage was at the age of 12 in Pemberton at Dreamcatcher Meadows where she rode her uncle's 19-year-old roping horse at Training and First Level.

At the age of 14, she was given the wonderful opportunity to begin riding at Wendy Christoff's barn in Ladner. She started out riding Wendy's schoolmaster Caboose at Training and First Level for two years. She went to the BC Summer Games last year, winning a silver medal on one day and Bronze for team.

Esmee got her first horse, a 13 year old, 17hh Swedish Warmblood, Norseman otherwise known as, "Normy" in September 08, who was trained and ridden by Joni Lynn Peters. Esmee and Normy spent the winter training at FEI Juniors with one goal in mind, the Nationals. "I am very fortunate to have such a willing and loving partner."
