

Jodie Kennedy Baker

Jodie Kennedy Baker is a level 3 dressage coach and has ridden all her life. She has achieved "A" level in pony club and has competed in three day eventing, hunter jumper and dressage. Madore is the second horse Jodie has trained to the FEI level. She was long listed for three years in the late 1990s with Alberta Springs, a product of the Spruce Meadows breeding program.

Madore is imported from Denmark and is a 13 year old gelding by May Sheriff and out of Sabrina, a Sandro mare. Madore's famous brothers include Matador who Kyra Kirkland won the World Cup final with in 1990 his other brother Andiamo who Sven Rothenberger won the World Cup on in 1989. Madore is currently for sale.

Jodie worked in Germany for Sven Rothenberger for one year, and has had training from Conrad Shumacher, Rudolf Zeilinger, Leslie Reid, and Eleonore Elstone. Her Mom, Bonnie Kennedy has provided years of lessons and "eyes on the ground".

Jodie is a secondary school teacher and riding instructor and is married to Steve, also a school teacher. Together they have two small children, Danya who is 3 and a new baby, Kennedy who is only 12 weeks old. During Jodie's pregnancy, her sister, Kerry rode Madore in Calgary.
